The Five Pillars of Islam!

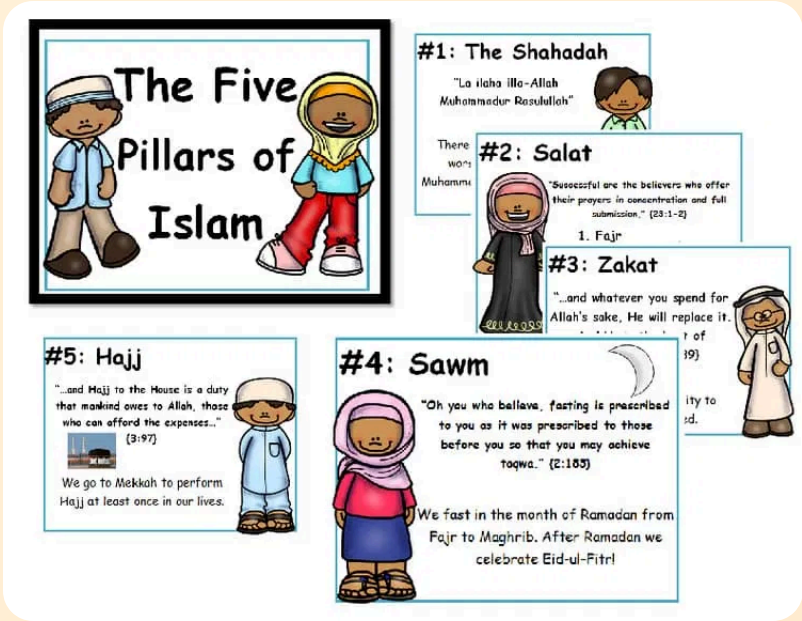

Learning to be Kind and Close to Allah

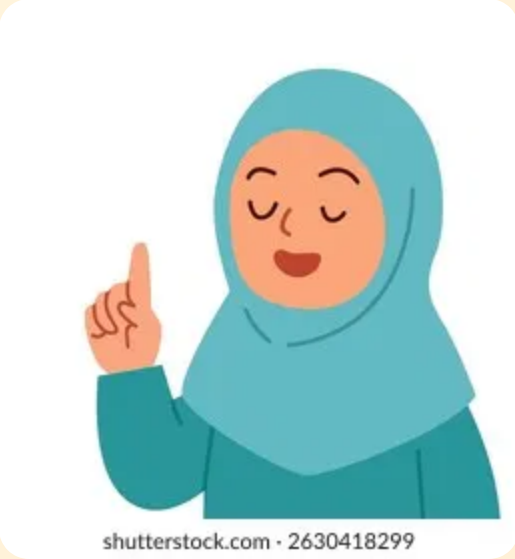

What are the Five Pillars?

- They are like five strong steps that help Muslims grow in faith.
- They help us be kind, helpful, and responsible.
- They are: Shahada, Salat, Zakat, Sawm, and Hajj!

Pillar 1: Shahada (Faith)

What it means:

Believing in one God, Allah, and that Muhammad is His messenger.

The special sentence:

> "There is no god but Allah, and Muhammad is His messenger."

Why it's important:

It's the most important step! It means we believe in one Creator.

Pillar 2: Salat (Prayer)

What it means:

Praying to Allah five times every day.

How we do it:

We pray gently and respectfully on a clean mat.

Why it's important:

It's a peaceful time to talk to Allah and feel calm and connected to our Creator.

Pillar 3: Zakat (Charity)

What it means:

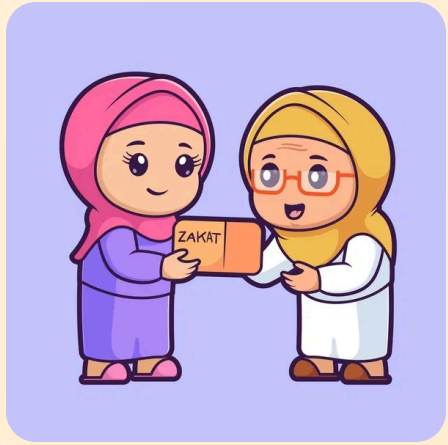

Giving to those who need help.

How we do it:

Sharing gifts, food, or coins with a kind heart.

Why it's important:

It teaches us to share our blessings and make the world a happier place!

Pillar 4: Sawm (Fasting)

What it means:

Not eating or drinking from sunrise to sunset during the month of Ramadan.

How we do it:

We wake up early and wait patiently until sunset.

Why it's important:

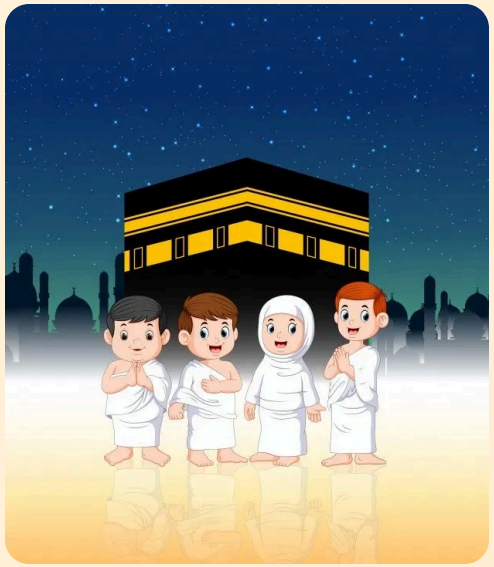

It teaches us patience, self-control, and helps us remember those who are hungry.

Pillar 5: Hajj (Pilgrimage)

- What it means:

  A special journey to the holy city of Mecca.

- How we do it:

  Muslims travel together and wear simple white clothes to show that everyone is equal before Allah.

- Why it's important:

  It's a time to feel close to Allah and be part of a huge family of Muslims from all over the world!

The Five Pillars: A Quick Review!

Shahada	Faith in one God (Allah)
Salat	Prayer (5 times a day)
Zakat	Charity (Sharing)
Sawm	Fasting (in Ramadan)
Hajj	Pilgrimage (Special Journey)

shutterstock.com · 2429681049

shutterstock.com · 2374267459

These Five Pillars of Islam help us grow in faith, kindness, and good deeds!

Let's try to be the best Muslims we can be!

Mustafa Sabry🌟